

Immigration Officer Selection

Extended Interview

Candidates who have passed the Written Examination Paper I will be invited by letter to attend the Extended interview. All interview items will be conducted in English. Refer to the letter for the interview arrangements. There are 2 parts to the interview.

Impromptu Talk

Candidates will be asked to give an unprepared talk on a chosen topic presented in the form of 2 keywords in English. Candidates will have 5 seconds to choose the topic and are expected to talk about the topic for 3 minutes.

The candidate's ability to make oral presentations in an unprepared situation is the key to success for this interview item.

Syndicate Discussion

There are 3 parts to the discussion: An introduction, open discussion, and conclusion. Each candidate is allotted a maximum speaking time of 1 minute. Candidates must raise their hands to indicate they want to make a comment.

The candidate's ability to express his or her view on a subject before a group is the key to success for this interview item.

If you pass Extended Interview—you will proceed to take Written Examination Paper II

