

“The Historical significance and Contemporary Relevance of the Four-Seven Debate”

Prof. John H. Berthrong hosts a special event with a guest speaker, Prof. Phillip J. Ivanhoe. It will be a great opportunity to learn about the most famous debate in Korean Confucian philosophy. This event is open to everyone and lunch will be served. To RSVP for lunch, please contact gckim@bu.edu. All are welcome!!

When: 4 April 2012, 12 pm

Where: STH Room 325

Biography

IVANHOE, Philip J 艾文賀 (Ph.D. Stanford University) has served as Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies at Stanford University, as Associate Professor of Philosophy and Asian Languages and Cultures at the University of Michigan, and as the Findlay Professor of Philosophy at Boston University before moving to City University of Hong Kong in 2007. He specializes in the history of East Asian philosophy and religion and their potential for contemporary ethical, political, and social thought.

School of Theology
Center for Global Christianity & Mission