Ani Ema Susanti, film director from Indonesia and a former domestic worker in Hong Kong, will present her debut commercial film, GLO, KAU CAHAYA, at City University of Hong Kong. The film portrays a swimming athlete, Gloria, who has to struggle both physically and mentally to get through her sorrow and deep wounds due to the loss of leg function. For a swimmer, losing one's leg is like losing a life, and as a gold medal winner in the Olympics, Gloria felt like her life has come to an end.

for a life full of uncertainty? This story speaks particularly to women who are facing constant changes, various constraints, and unpredictable challenges in life.
