“DMC issues related to shopping malls and residential buildings”

Institute of Shopping Centre Management (ISCM) and The Hong Kong Institute of Housing (HKIH) are co-organizing the following talk with the Department of Public and International Affairs of City University of Hong Kong for members of both institutes, students and members of the Department of Public and International Affairs with details as below:

Date & Time	27 April 2024 (Sat), 11 am – 1 pm
Topic	DMC issues related to shopping malls and residential buildings
Venue	LT-8, 4/F Yeung Kin Man Academic Building, City University of Hong Kong
Speaker	Mr. Peter Chan, Partner, Chung & Kwan Solicitors
Topic and details	Hong Kong, being a modern city, features an interesting and yet practical architectural design where shopping malls are integrated at the base of residential buildings. This layout not only provides convenient amenities for residents but also enhances the overall value of the properties. However, this design also brings forth a set of challenges and issues for the owners of these different portions in relation to each of their rights and responsibilities, some of which have garnered public attention. It is our pleasure to invite Mr. Peter Chan, a renowned lawyer specializing in this field, to share his expertise and present recent case studies in this seminar.
Language	Cantonese
Fee	Free of Charge
Capacity	120 persons (enrollments will only be confirmed upon telephone call by HKIH before event date)
HKIH CPD	2 CPD Units (Education and Training)
PMSA CPD	2 CPD Hours (Core – Professional Practice)
