

The Southeast Asia Research Centre presents a public seminar on

Political Tsunami and the Future of Malaysia

Monday, December 1, 2008
1:30 - 2:45 pm

B5-309, 5/F, Blue Zone, Academic Building
City University of Hong Kong

Jeff Ooi, is currently an MP in the 12th Malaysian Parliament and the Chief-of-Staff to the Penang State Government. He also runs a highly successful blog at www.jeffooi.com.

In March 2008, the government of Malaysia, in power since independence in 1957, was rocked by a general election, losing its extraordinary majority in parliament and control over five states. Come listen to Mr. Jeff Ooi, a prominent blogger and now opposition member of parliament, as he tells us about this dramatic change in Malaysia's politics.

All are welcome

Language: English

For enquiries, please email to searc@cityu.edu.hk