on the journey of senior pet care.*

Maintaining the quality of life and happiness of a senior pet during illness is difficult and emotionally challenging for any owner.

Dr Steinhaus' talk will help owners to assess the quality of life of their pets and care for them so that they are comfortable during the final moments of their lives.

He will also talk about euthanasia; at which point an owner should consider this, how to make this decision and how euthanasia of a beloved pet is carried out.
