Bachelor of Social Sciences (Hons) in International Studies

International studies focuses on international relations, globalization, and development issues with a particular focus on the Asia-Pacific region. You will be taught by a group of scholars who appreciate the complexities and diversities of social, cultural, economic and political developments in the region and the world, and who have particular expertise in Asian and International Studies.

The programme offers you the opportunities to join student activities abroad, as well as a placement programme for work experience in Asia.

Flexible study mode
- able to switch study mode (full-time/part-time)
- able to choose study pattern to suit personal needs with most of the classes on weekday evenings and Saturdays mornings to afternoons. Some electives will be scheduled during the daytime.

This is your chance to broaden your knowledge and skill base so that you can be well prepared to meet the challenges of a globalized knowledge-based economy.

Our BSSIS Graduates think:
"We have studied interesting concepts, but we’ve also learned about things like the Hong Kong stock exchange by actually paying visits."
