Large Deviations for Multi-valued Stochastic Differential Equations

Jiagang REN

Department of Statistics Science
School of Mathematics and Computational Science
Sun Yat-sen University, China
Email: matdm@nus.edu.sg

We prove a large deviation principle of Freidlin-Wentzell's type for the multivalued stochastic differential equations with monotone drifts, which in particular include a class of SDEs with reflection in a convex domain.